GREETINGS

Greetings from the staff!

We have just planned out another four months of classes that will take us through December 2009. It seems crazy, but it is already time to schedule classes again. We have to do it this way to keep from losing any classes because of delays. We want to make as many Christmas gifts as possible this year.

We just finished the first two Youth classes. The students were great. Judging by their excitement, we know they had a great time.

For the rest of this year, we will host an Anita Goodesign show. You all know how much fun this is, and the door prizes aren't half bad either! There will be extra events that will get you in the spirit of sewing, quilting and embroidering.

Early February, 2010, we are hosting another Martha Pullen School. Connie Palmer and Peggy Dilbone are coming back! Those of you who attended the last one know how much fun this school is for everybody. You will hear more by email and brochures in the months to come. If you have changed your email address, please let us know. We have special classes for you every month. Also, Sue Hausmann will be coming in August 2010 to work with you.

No matter what is going on in your life, when you come to Sewingly Yours, it is our job to take care of you, listen to you and put you in a happy place you can take with you when you leave.

We realize you can't all come in every day, but we miss you when you don't.
